

The Social Enterprise Ambassadors are 30 of the most inspirational social entrepreneurs in the country, appointed by the Cabinet Office in 2007.

They are passionate about their work and keen to share that passion to inspire others to use business to tackle social and environmental issues.

All of the ambassadors are leaders of successful social enterprises, and illustrate the breadth and depth of businesses driven by a social or environmental mission. They operate in different markets and geographical areas across the country, in industries including IT, health and social care, retail, marketing, transport, recycling, the arts and education.

The ambassadors are independent business people and are free to speak their mind. They are working voluntarily to encourage people to start, work for, buy from and partner with social enterprise.

To enquire about booking an ambassador for your event, please email ambassadors@socialenterprise.org.uk or call 020 7793 2287.

Trisha Lee
Artistic Director, MakeBelieve Arts

Trisha Lee is the Artistic Director and founder of MakeBelieve Arts, a leading provider of theatre and education programmes based in South London. MakeBelieve Arts believe that all children are entitled to high quality creative education.

The company works to make a definite and long-lasting contribution to the development of children and young people using activities designed to pursue not only artistic but also social and educational aims and objectives.

MakeBelieve Arts is a restorative approaches company, taking a child centred approach to engaging young people with learning in all their activities. MakeBelieve Arts strength is in its ability to keep abreast of current educational thinking, and incorporate this in the programmes they develop.

Each year MakeBelieve Arts works with around 5,000 children, young people, their teachers and parents.

Trisha Lee is highly experienced, not only as a speaker on issues around education, arts and business, but also in delivering workshops and breakout sessions and working with the MakeBelieve Arts team on developing creative ways to bring conferences and events to life.

Her knowledge of education and how children learn is demonstrated in two publications; Success in the Creative Classroom, and Happy Families, both available in UK bookshops. She has recently been commissioned to write a chapter for a book on Learning in the Early Years and to be joint contributor for a Routledge Education on Teaching Mathematics Creatively.
